In a certain neighborhood, a women's self-help group called Twegatte Savings Group was established to promote savings and loans among its members. The group treasurer records all transactions in a manual ledger, but as the group grows, it has become difficult to manage the records efficiently. Some members have raised concerns about delays in getting financial reports and inconsistencies in the loan repayment calculations. A new member suggested automating the system for better management of records. The treasurer extracted the records into a file called TWEGATTE_SAVINGS.docx, and the group has also provided a template for loan reminders in the file LOAN_REMINDER.docx.

Task:

Using the support files provided:

- (a) Create an electronic version of the records and use it to produce a visual summary of members' savings contributions.
- (b) Generate a list of members who have outstanding loan balances and prepare a loan reminder for each member.

Item 2
